This Privileged Hour...

by Father King

HIGH SCHOOL PROPERTY REZONED

"Twelve Minutes" -- that's about how long our portion of the township meeting required and it was successful. The item was moved to the top of the agenda, the request was read in which two hundred feet along Packard would be zoned for office use and the balance of the 12 acre parcel would be zoned for commercial use. Attorney Henry Conlin, representing the church, made a brief presentation recalling the length of time involved in the process, the recommendation of the Township Planning Committee consultant which pointed out that this was the best and most suitable use of this property, and distributed drawings of projected plans for development of the area.

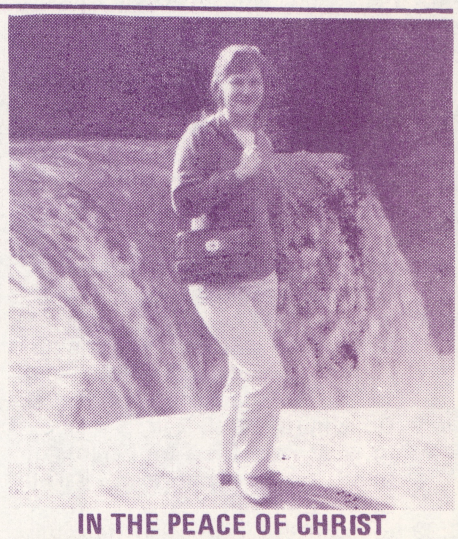
"Any questions" asked Supervisor Bill Gagnon? Board member Frank Daniels was recognized by the chair and pointed out that with the development taking place in the area it would be inconceivable that any one would build residential on that corner. "Any other questions...or comments..?" The silence was full of suspense. Call for question...all in favor...? And the 'yeas' were unanimous.

Parishioners who joined us for the meeting included Tom Sullivan, Ed Look, Bob Mentley, Pat Walters, Burleson Fitzharris, Steve and Tina Adamick, but the speeches they were prepared to deliver could be left unspoken. Attorney John Murphy and Barney Hughes were also with us in the anxious waiting.

Two reporters cornered Attorney Conlin and had obviously just walked onto the scene as such questions were asked..."What happened?" and a querulous, "Say, who is this A. Zalewski?"

Pat Walters looked at his watch and said, "Twelve minutes... shortest meeting I was ever at."

"Not quite, Pat," I said, "this one lasted one year and two months." But once again, the minutes ticked off into one more very privileged hour.



IN THE PEACE OF CHRIST

"It begins with waiting and it ends with waiting. A person who waits is one who knows she was made for more." Such was the living and the dying of Louise Marie Chadwick who was buried in the hope of resurrection last Thursday, March 22, 1973. The body of Louise was returned to the church of her Baptism on Tuesday evening for a vigil of prayer and respect and again on Thursday for the celebration of the Mass of the Resurrection.

Louise died Sunday evening at the age of 33. Though she physically leaves her family and friends, their lives are richer today because of her faith and love both in life and in death. Her family includes her husband, Robeft and five children all at home, Kathleen, Matthew, Mark, Anne Marie and Michael. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bishop, a sister, Cheryl and two brothers, Ronald and Kenneth also survive.

Bob was the former principal of St. John's High School and is presently principal of Bishop Foley High School in Madison Heights.

The Vigil Services were celebrated by Fr. Harvey on Tuesday. Richard Wagner was commentator. Sister Mary was lector and cantor. A reception served by the members of the Service Commission followed the Vigil service in the rectory.

The Mass of the Resurrection was concelebrated on Thursday morning. Fr. King was main concelebrant and preacher. Fr. Harvey and six other priests associated with Bishop Foley High School joined with Fr. King in proclaiming that LIFE IS CHANGED, NOT ENDED. Sister Carol Denise was lector of the Funeral Mass, and Miss Diane Deland was commentator. The 150 member choir from Bishop Foley High School sang "I'll Walk With God" and provided support for the congregational singing. Burial took place in St. John's Cemetery. May Louise share the life and peace she so faithfully awaited.
